• Dear Rhiannon,

Study Title: Mental Health and Wellbeing Interventions for Care-experienced Children and Young People: Systematic review of intervention theories, process, effect and equity

Thank you for your e-mail correspondence of the 29th March 2020 in relation the above-named study funded by the NIHR.

Following review of the outline research proposal, please accept this letter as confirmation that you are not required to complete and submit an ethics application for the systematic review element of the work.

Yours sincerely

Professor Alison Bullock
Chair of School of Social Sciences Research Ethics Committee
